Re: Errata to October 24, 2013 Ex Parte: Connect America Fund: A National Broadband Plan for Our Future; Establishing Just and Reasonable Rates for Local Exchange Carriers; High-Cost Universal Service Support; Developing a Unified Intercarrier Compensation Regime; Federal-State Joint Board of Universal Service; Lifeline and Link-Up; Universal Service Reform - Mobility Fund, WC Docket Nos. 10-90, 07-135, 05-337, 03-109, CC Docket Nos. 01-92, 96-45, GN Docket No. 09-51, WT Docket No. 10-208

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On October 22, 2013, my colleague David Carter and I met with Kalpak Gude, John Hunter, Randy Clarke, Pam Arluk, Tom Parisi, and Doug Slotten of the Wireline Competition Bureau. James Graft, CEO of Northern Valley Communications, LLC (“Northern Valley”), joined the meeting by phone. Our meeting was to discuss the issues raised in Notice of Ex Parte filed by Brian J. Benison on behalf of AT&T Services, Inc. (“AT&T”) on September 18, 2013, including AT&T’s self help withholding of payment from Northern Valley and its false allegations that Northern Valley is engaged in a “mileage pumping” scheme. A Notice of Ex Parte was filed in the above-referenced dockets on October 24, 2013, describing this meeting and including a copy of a presentation that was used during the meeting. Since filing the Notice of Ex Parte, it has come to Northern Valley’s attention that the presentation included an inadvertent error. Northern Valley thus writes for the purpose of correcting this error.

Specifically, page 9 of the presentation attached to the Notice of Ex Parte, should be amended as follows:

- By striking the bullet point that reads “SDN’s tariff does not provide for a mileage-insensitive per-minute tariffed transport service” and replacing it with “SDN’s tariff provides for a per-minute tariffed transport service”

- By striking the bullet point that reads “If NVC did not charge for transport, SDN would charge its own mileage-sensitive rate” and replacing it with “If NVC did not charge for transport, SDN would charge its own transport rate”

We apologize for this oversight. A copy of this letter is being filed electronically with the Commission. If you have any question or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Ross A. Buntrock
Counsel for Northern Valley Communications, LLC
